

Household Junk Collection

AAF/AR/1947/0121

12 January 2021

To all residents of Arabian Ranches

Dear Resident,

As part of our commitment towards a cleaner, healthier and sustainable environment, we are pleased to inform you about our initiative towards the collection of unwanted household items, launching from 12 January 2021.

This initiative has been organised in partnership with selected service providers who are equipped to offer residents a convenient means to dispose of a variety of items. The service will be free, with protocols in place to ensure adherence to social distancing norms and guidelines. To arrange for a collection, please refer the list of service providers below and book a preferable slot.
